Become Te-Kworo Foundation 'Community Restorers'

Corporate teams are taking up the team building challenge: what can be done to support young girls in Northern Uganda to reclaim their freedom and independence?

Hosted by professional facilitators, the Te-Kworo Foundation Community Restorers Challenge includes interactive fast-paced simulation exercises and thought-provoking discussions that promote teamwork, increased empathy and more open minds.

Your colleagues will get a behind-the-scenes view of how the Te-Kworo Foundation runs a Maternal and Child Health Clinic and two boarding school Academies to enable 500 young girls each year to learn how to care for their children, gain valuable trade skills to earn an income to become self-sufficient and enjoy a better future.

This team building activity will bring your colleagues together to learn about this charity and how they believe that educating a girl is in fact educating a nation; how they empower young girls to have a brighter future where they can provide for their child, as well as work with the community to better protect their rights and interests.

Your group will see myths debunked, learn how they can make a difference in the world and their workplace and help Te-Kworo Foundation with their valuable work.

The results?

- Strengthened teams with greater appreciation of their colleagues.
- Heightened awareness about the amazing work Te-Kworo Foundation has done.
- Increased social impact by supporting a charity that provides highly disadvantaged young girls the means and encouragement to create a better future.
